AAUW

American Association
of University Women

The American Association of University Women (AAUW) is one of the leading organizations promoting equity and education for women and girls. It was founded in 1881 as the Association of Collegiate Alumnae and assumed its current name in 1921. It is now composed of more than 170,000 members and supporters, 1000 local Branches and 800 college and university partners. The AAUW is a Section 501(c)(3) public charity with a smaller Section 501(c) (4) organization.

The AAUW annually awards approximately $3.9 million in fellowships and grants to support 250 women and nonprofit organizations. A full list of the fellows and grantees can be found at the AAUW website: www.aauw.org

The AAUW's Legal Advocacy Fund was founded in 1981 to end sex discrimination in higher education and the work force. A full listing of the court cases supported by the LAF can be found on the AAUW's website.

AAUW's Mission: To advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education and advocacy.

AAUW's Vision: Equity for all.

AAUW's Values: Integrity, Inclusion, Nonpartisan and Fact-based.

American Association
of University Women
Salem County New Jersey Branch

The Salem County Branch was established in 1937.

It currently supports the following activities:

- Nancy Timberman Memorial Fund
- Sponsorship to National Conference of College Women Student Leaders
- Sponsorship to Tech Trek-NJ at Stockton University
- Voucher Program

(See full descriptions of activities on inside back cover)

Non-profit Disclosure: The AAUW Salem County NJ Branch is a tax exempt association under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is NOT a tax deductible organization.

Membership: Membership is open to graduates holding an Associates or higher degree from a regionally accredited institution.

(See Membership Application on page 16)

The AAUW – NJ was founded in 1927. It advances the AAUW’s goals at the state level by advocating public policy positions consistent with the AAUW, providing STEM programs for high school and junior high girls and taking part in the NJ Legislative Tracking Tool.

Website: aauw-nj.aauw.net

The AAUW New Jersey Charitable Trust, a Section 501(c)(3) organization, provides funding for projects of the AAUW-NJ and branches whose goals advance women’s equity and education.

Salem County Branch

NANCY TIMBERMAN SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Timberman award provides funding to high school graduates who demonstrate financial need, academic achievement, leadership qualities, and motivational spirit to further their education. This scholarship fund was renamed in 1988 to honor the memory of one of our members who tirelessly worked to help young women further their education.

SPONSORSHIP TO NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF COLLEGE WOMEN STUDENT LEADERS

The branch provides Salem County women college students who demonstrate leadership qualities with funding to attend the AAUW National Conference for College Women Student Leaders. The conference addresses contemporary leadership issues for women.

SPONSORSHIP TO TECH TREK NJ AT STOCKTON UNIVERSITY

The branch sponsors an upcoming female eighth grader to a week-long STEM program.

VOUCHER PROGRAM

The program provides small grants to Salem County women in financial need. The grants are meant to assist grantees with overcoming barriers preventing them from reaching personal and career goals.

Wishing the Salem County Chapter of AAUW a successful Women's History Tea Luncheon...
