

AAUW SALEM COUNTY NJ BRANCH

NANCY TIMBERMAN MEMORIAL FUND

The Timberman award provides funding to high school graduates who demonstrate financial need, academic achievement, leadership qualities, and motivational spirit to further their education. This scholarship fund was renamed in 1988 to honor the memory of one of our members who tirelessly worked to help young women further their education.

SPONSORSHIP TO NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF COLLEGE WOMEN STUDENT LEADERS

The Branch provides Salem County woman college students who demonstrate leadership qualities with funding to attend the AAUW National Conference for College Women Student Leaders. The conference addresses contemporary leadership issues for women.

Sponsorship to Tech Trek NJ at Stockton University

The Branch sponsors an upcoming female eighth grader to a week-long STEM program.

VOUCHER PROGRAM

The program provides small grants to Salem County women in financial need. The grants are meant to assist grantees with overcoming barriers preventing them from reaching personal and career goals.

SALEM COUNTY NJ AAUW MEMBERSHIP

Membership is open to anyone holding an Associates or higher degree from an accredited college or university.

NON PROFIT DISCLOSURE

The AAUW is a 501 (c)(3) public charity. The AAUW-NJ and the Salem County Branch are 501 (c)(4) organizations. They are tax exempt, but NOT tax deductible.
